The screenshot shows a blog post on the Pixnet website. The page header includes the site name '痞客邦' and navigation links for '部落格' (Blog) and '邦邦' (Bang Bang). The post is dated 'Aug 19 Sun 2018 22:54' and titled '2018東沙巡禮 活動分享'. It features a large image of the Dongsha Atoll National Park map, identical to the one in the Instagram post. The text of the post describes the annual Dongsha Atoll Expedition, organized by the Ministry of Education and the National Marine Science Museum. It details the selection process, where students are chosen from various schools, and the expedition is divided into three waves (June, July, and August). The post also notes that the atoll is a military restricted area, making it difficult for the general public to visit. Social media sharing icons for Facebook, Ptt, Twitter, and Google+ are visible. On the right side of the page, there is a sidebar with a 'TutorABC' advertisement and a '站方公告' (Site Announcement) section. The announcements include information about the site's migration to Facebook and a special discount for PIXNET members.
